Theme for RI Year 2007-2008

Every incoming president of RI chooses a theme for his year in office. It is the goal of the incoming president that the theme reflects how he feels about Rotary, his message and to motivate Rotarians for the coming year. 2007-2008 incoming president Wilfrid Wilkinson has chosen "Rotary Shares" as his theme.

"I have always felt that the essence of Rotary is about sharing...We share our time, we share our talents, and we share our resources. We share our kindness, and we share our love."

Information and quote from July 2007, The Rotarian.

Update on Old Mill Center

Bev Larson (standing) with the assistance of Lisa Penter (sitting front left) gave our club an update on what has been happening at the Old Mill Center over the last year.

The Old Mill Center is a full-service agency, providing education and treatment to children starting at age two. The center has a number of services to provide both prevention and intervention to children and families.

Currently there is an addition being built to the center which will increase the size of the facility. They are also hoping to increase their funding to extend the scope of current services and to expand services.

Morning Tidbits

Hi gang. . Cartridges continue to be a year round fund raiser. The big toners look impressive, but don't bring any more than the small ones.

Of late we have been short on the little ones. The best one are the HP and the Lexmark. They have the best resale value. Most of the other one can't be refilled.

Ask your friends to give you their used cartridges. In fact ask everyone you know with a printer for their used cartridges.

Remember the H P and Lexmark are to top brand.
